RE: Hertz Corp. v. Accenture LLP, No. 19cv3508 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

On June 14, 2019, in accordance with the Court’s Scheduling Order entered on June 4, 2019 [ECF 22], the Hertz Corporation (“Hertz”) filed its first amended complaint (the “First Amended Complaint”) [ECF 23]. Hertz has subsequently identified a typographical error in the second sentence paragraph 92 of its First Amended Complaint, which currently reads: “Hertz reasonably relied upon Accenture’s representations about the expertise of its developers when it chose to hire Hertz.” However, this sentence should read “Hertz reasonably relied upon Accenture’s representations about the expertise of its developers when it chose to hire Accenture.”

Hertz respectfully requests permission to file a Corrected First Amended Complaint in the form attached as Exhibit A to this letter. Hertz has also attached a redline comparing the First Amended Complaint with the proposed Corrected First Amended Complaint as Exhibit B.

Hertz has communicated its intention to file the Corrected First Amended Complaint to Accenture LLP (“Accenture”) and Accenture had no objection.

We are available to discuss any issues or questions at the Court’s convenience.

The Honorable William H. Pauley III
